(c) An individual seeking access to records in person may establish his or her identity by the presentation of one document bearing a photograph (such as a driver's license, passport, or identification card or badge) or by the presentation of two items of identification which do not bear a photograph, but do bear both a name and address (such as a credit card). When identification is made without photographic identification the Commission will request a signature comparison to the signature appearing on the items offered for identification, whenever possible and practical.

(d) An individual seeking access to records by mail shall establish his or her identity by a signature, address, date of birth, and one other identification, such as a copy of a driver's license, passport, identification card or badge, credit card or other document. The words "Privacy Act Request" should be placed in capital letters on the face of the envelope in order to facilitate requests by mail.

(e) An individual seeking access in person or by mail who cannot provide the required documentation of identification may provide a notarized statement, swearing or affirming to his or her identity and to the fact that he or she understands that there are criminal penalties for the making of false statements.

(f) The parent or guardian of a minor or a person judicially determined to be incompetent, in addition to establishing the identity of the minor or incompetent person he or she represents as required by paragraphs (a) through (c) of this section, shall establish his or her own parentage or guardianship by furnishing a copy of a birth certificate showing parentage or court order establishing guardianship.

(g) An individual seeking to review information about himself or herself may be accompanied by another person of his or her own choosing. In all such cases, the individual seeking access shall be required to furnish a written statement authorizing the discussion of his or her record in the presence of the accompanying person.

[40 FR 45727, Oct. 2, 1975, as amended at 42 FR 12046, Mar 2, 1977. Redesignated and amended at 44 FR 75152, Dec. 19, 1979]

§ 705.5 Disclosure of requested information to individuals.

The Solicitor, or one or more assistants designated by him or her, upon receiving a request for notification of the existence of a record, or for access to a record shall (a) determine whether such record exists; (b) determine whether access is available under the Privacy Act; (c) notify the requesting person of those determinations within 10 (ten) working days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays); and (d) provide access to information pertaining to that person which has been determined to be available.
